Christian Leadership For Today's Challenges

Roger's teaching was well received by 50 pastors, elders and teachers in S-E. Mexico Churches in this region want to do a major evangelistic thrust next year. In preparation, they asked Roger to train them in mentoring and discipleship concepts. How do you grow those who respond to the Gospel?

One man handed Roger this note: "Your warnings against authoritarian leadership struck me hard." Servant leadership has little precedence in Latin culture.

 A recent email from South America ***

"We just finished an 8 week series on your leadership book. We have about 8 potential deacons and two teaching elders who are taking the studies. We found the material very helpful.

Our head pastor said he feels as if you were here living the struggles our denomination is going through; which are some of the same things you worked through in the book."

Armadillo on the half-shell, the latest missionary delicacy added to our list.

We appreciate you!
