

Joyfully Serving

This little piggy was being rolled out of the food court at the mall. It's a clue that Miami is like a foreign country! Everyone speaks to us in Spanish. Dianne is assumed to be Cuban.

Knowing Spanish opens doors to the gospel as we give plates of cookies to acquaintances during the holidays.

Roger is cancer-free and recuperating nicely. Thank you for your loving notes and heartfelt prayers. God overwhelms us with His goodness.

from Guadalajara:

We need 20 of your books for our daughter church and 50 for our mother church. Your teaching on grace is part of our Christian education curriculum and all members must take this course of "Si Jesús."

from Medellin Colombia:

I want to thank you for your ministry & books which are a great blessing for me. Please consider coming to Medellin.

from England:

I am a pastor in a Spanish speaking church in Manchester, England.

I am preparing a course on leadership and found your book on the Internet. It is exactly what we were looking for.

from a seminary professor in Washington:

Thank you for your web site. We share a common Reformed understanding of God, the Scriptures and the world. I am forwarding your web link to one of our students who plans to minister in Peru upon graduation.

Happy New Year

We end 2012 with thankful hearts to God. He has given us you, who encourage our vision.

THANK YOU!

through God's mercy we have this ministry
