

Joyfully Serving

Remember the hits we showed you on our web site last month? Here's a face behind one of them. Edgardo is a pastor from Honduras. He wrote us an email: "It was a tremendous blessing to find your web page with your literature. The Lord saved me at 14. I am a lawyer and my wife is a doctor. We went to the seminary in San Pedro Sula and now pastor a church near that city."

Edgardo wrote this while in Miami for a few days on business. Today we met for lunch. He may end up using our training program for his denomination.

"You've ruined me! Since you taught me about God's sovereign grace, I can't go anywhere else", Edmundo joked. Years ago we trained this dear Ecuadorian to be an elder in our Quito church. He recently paid us a visit.

We were delighted to hear that the San Marcos church is growing and the Presbytery is ministering in unity. Edmundo recently went to the coast of Ecuador to gather all remaining SI JESUS books available from Christian book stores. He didn't realize we had reprinted them several times since and can ship them to him. Edmundo is presently teaching a group of 70 disciples. We gave him copies of CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP to augment their discipleship program.

Roger has the honor of being the speaker for the General Assembly of Mexico in July. Please pray as he prepares. It's like seeing family. We know so many of the pastors and their families from that country already.

Prayer Requests:

1. A trip to Bolivia needs to be arranged around the political chaos there.
2. New Vision REAL training centers to open this year.
3. PRAISE GOD our support account is just barely in the black. Yet we are still under a salary cut. Pray about this.
