

JOYFULLY SERVING

What do these have in common:

- *An evangelist from India, ministering in Japan.
- *A doctor on the Isle of Malta.
- *A Costa Rican minister.
- *A Peruvian, training indigents in the mountains.

Answer:

Each wrote us in the last couple of weeks saying they are using our resources.

*The Peruvian says the SI JESUS book helps him teach grace.

*The doctor from Malta downloaded JOYFULLY JUSTIFIED because he focuses his ministry to Catholics.

*The Costa Rican and Indian evangelist are excited over teaching manuals they can distribute straight off our website.

A new believer's prayers have a certain charm. Our Cuban neighbor and I (Dianne) meet regularly for a stroll and prayer. Onelia's prayers seem more like conversation. Her eyes remain open. Instead of an formal amen she usually ends with a glance in my direction that asks, "Did I do it right?" I return home with a smile. These un-fancy prayers surely access the Throne Room.

Thank you for praying for Roger's Mexico trip. He's putting the finishing touches on his notes for the GRACE course. **Pray for anointing and safety there in October.*

Pastor Cruz's church is 128 years old & smack dab in the center of Monterrey, MX.

We always thank the Lord for you
