

Joyfully Serving

Hundreds of church leaders came together in Bolivia a couple of weeks ago. Most were mentored by Kep, a missionary who has spent over 30 years on the field with his lovely family.

Kep had used our books without knowing us. He wrote an email inviting us to teach Christian Leadership to this group of pastors. We fell in love with these precious Bolivians. * * * *

Edgar rode a bus all night from La Paz to Cochabamba. When we walked into the church at nine in the morning, our hearts skipped a beat. There on the table were our SI JESUS books. Edgar had printed 1000 of them La Paz and they turned out prettier than the original!

Here's Edgar, having missed a night's sleep, but with the foresight to set out our books in time to surprise us.

Do you recall praying about our problem of getting books to far off lands? Well, take a look at one of the answers here and praise God with us. We thank you for praying. * * * *

These seminary students begged us to reserve a few minutes to enjoy typical Bolivian food around their table. What generous hospitality! * * * *
