Our books were packed and clothing folded for the suitcase. One foot was practically out the door when suddenly God rearranged our plans.

Acapulco's airport was now under water from storms that hammered the city. Tens of thousands of people were affected and trapped throughout Acapulco in the aftermath. Thankfully, we had not yet left the U.S.

A quick call to Ellen Barnett (missionary in Acapulco) confirmed February as a revised date for our conferences there after such a disaster. We quickly changed our tickets.

Please pray for our dear Mexican believers as they scramble to recover.

PRAY FOR

- * folks in Acapulco
- * our teaching in Monterrey, MX this month
- * our newest V.R. training center in Merida

Dear Roger,

"The Presbytery has chosen your Vision R.E.A.L. leadership training program to prepare our ruling elders. Please register us as an official V.R. training center."

Thank you for praying that God would open new leadership training centers. This one is in the Yucatan Peninsula.

I get warm fuzzies vacuuming our closet. Why's that? It means the boxes of books that once stacked tall there are now into the hands of Latin Americans. In a few days 850 more books arrive from the printer, once again filling the closet, awaiting their adventure south.

Grace does what we cannot
