

JOYFULLY SERVING

Sept 2014
www.smallings.com

God has granted us 42 delightful years of marriage.
Roger pens a lovely poem each year. Here's a favorite:

Without you...

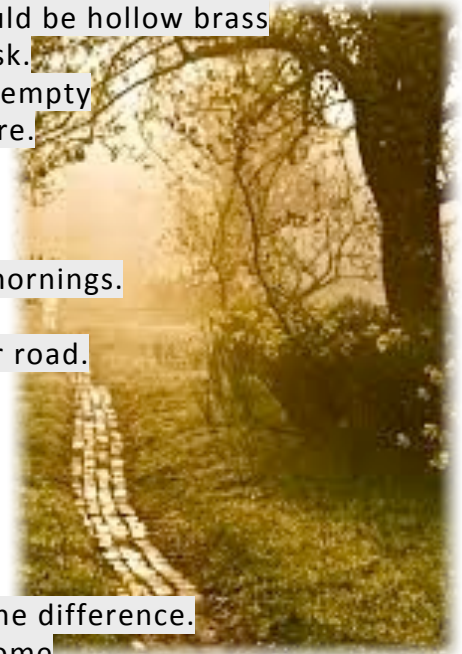

Our tranquil house would be hollow brass
And early morn like dusk.
Dining would leave me empty
And travel a lonely chore.

With you...

Our home is golden.
You cheer the dullest mornings.
Dining is a pleasure.
And I travel a smoother road.

From brass to gold
and dusk to morning
Empty to replete
And rough to smooth.

Our love-bond makes the difference.
It makes the house a home
The dusk a morning
The road a garden path.

Brother Smalling,

I am a pastor who attended your recent conference. After reading your book I am truly "Joyful over Joyfully Justified". I'm ordering 50 copies to be studied in depth by our groups.

Pray :

As you read this, we're preparing for our Panama conference and fellowship with many Latin American pastors from countries where we minister.

-Thank you for your encouragement
in our ministry-

Joyfully Serving,
Roger & Dianne
